00:00:05,100 --> 00:00:15,266

In this video we are going to demonstrate how to export a reference from the EBSCO databases to refworks

2

00:00:15,466 --> 00:00:26,599

The ebsco databases cover a large variety of subjects in psychology, sport, health, business and also education

3

00:00:27,266 --> 00:00:31,466

Make sure you are logged into refworks

4

00:00:33,666 --> 00:00:39,966

Go into the ebsco database and in this example I am in psycarticles

5

00:00:41,266 --> 00:00:45,266

You can search for a journal article

6

00:00:45,366 --> 00:00:49,366

Enter your keywords and select search

7

00:00:55,866 --> 00:01:00,899

When you have located your article select the article title

8

00:01:04,600 --> 00:01:06,833

Select export

9

00:01:11,333 --> 00:01:15,033

The direct export to refworks will be automatically selected

10

00:01:16,733 --> 00:01:21,999

Select save. Then select export to the new reworks

11

00:01:27,366 --> 00:01:31,366

Select ok

12

00:01:34,600 --> 00:01:45,833

From the last imported folder select your reference and drag it across to your folder
